 An international organisation of bereaved parents, siblings and grandparents offering friendship and understanding to each other following the death of a child.

NEW MEMBER REGISTRATION 2024

There is no cost to become or remain a registered member of The Compassionate Friends New South Wales (TCF NSW). TCF NSW receives a grant from the South Eastern Sydney Local Health District each year. Our grant covers only some of the operating cost to help bereaved families throughout the state. It is a requirement of the grant that we maintain a record of our membership. All personal information is kept confidential, securely stored and not shared with third parties.
